Cattlemen to Make Effort to Secure Cattlemen's Convention.

Headed by Concha's band, a big dele ation of cattlemen will leave El Paso for Amarillo, Texas, next Sunday to at-tend the convention of the Panhandle Livestock association, which will meet there on April 4.

It is the intention of the El Pasoans to bring the convention to this city in ; 1911 and Amarillo has pledged her sup-port provided that El Paso will secure 14 new members for the association. Sheriff F. J. Hall, who attended the cattlemen's convention at Fort Worth, said this morning: "This association is a big thing and is composed altogether of cattlemen, while in the state association there are a number of farmers who have but few cattle. Protested at Payment of 60 Percent on Drawn Work Under Old Schedule.

against the payment of the 60 percent by the government's attorneys following a decision returned by the United States court of appeals of the second circuit, New York, against the govern-ment, which was an affirmation of the judgment by the United States circuit court of the southern district of New York in that, the judgment of the beard of appraisers, sustaining the government, was reversed in the case of J. R. Simon & Co. importers, of New York, against the collector of customs of the ort of New York. The local case is that of H. S. Beach and others against A. L. Sharpe, collec-tor of customs at El Paso, and originated in August, 1996. The complainants al-leged the duty of 60 percent on drawn-work imported from Mexico, was not in accordance with the provisions of the tariff 1897, and appealed to the federal court. Judge Maxey held in favor of the government and the complainants failed ries of protests were filed by local im-porters and by the supreme court's decision, the government will liquidate all active protests. Among the El Paso importetrs who protested are H. S. Beach, A. A. Kline and W. G. Waiz &

Whether the first protests filed will be considered in the liquidation scheme, is problematical, according to the statement today of local importers, as the appeals were not prosecuted.

It was stated by local custom officials today that the supreme court's ruling will in no manner affect the duty on drawnwork imported since the tariff of August, 1909, went into effect, as in that
